United Nations E/2004/L.1/Add.17

Economic and Social Council

Distr.: Limited
20 April 2004

Original: English

Resumed organizational session of 2004
4 and 5 May 2004
Agenda item 4
Elections, nominations, confirmations and appointments

Election of five members of the International Narcotics Control Board from among candidates nominated by Governments

Note by the Secretary-General

Addendum

1. The Secretary-General has received two nominations from the Government of Zambia for election to the International Narcotics Control Board.[1] The candidates are: Lufwendo Saboi and Aaron Zulu.

2. Biographical information on the candidates is contained in the annex to the present note.

[1] See E/2004/L.1/Add.3 and Add.14 for information on other candidates nominated by Governments.

04-31712 (E) 270404

Annex

Biographical information on candidates nominated for election to the International Narcotics Control Board

Lufwendo Saboi (Zambia)

Education: Bachelor of Laws degree (LLB) 1985 to 1989; advocate of the High Court of Zambia 1993.

Present post: Principal State Advocate of the Drug Enforcement Commission.

Achievements: Drafted the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act and the Prohibition and Prevention of Money Laundering Act of 2001; Resource person on all drug-related legal matters, including money-laundering in financial institutions under the aegis of the Bankers Association of Zambia.

Courses attended:

1990-November 1991: Substance abuse training course, Lusaka, organized by the International Council on Alcohol and Addictions.

1991: Advanced anti-narcotics course organized by the Egyptian Police Research Centre and the African Centre for Crime Prevention, Cairo.

1992: Executive awareness course on money-laundering, Vancouver, Canada.

1995: Regional workshop on drug demand reduction, sponsored by the Commonwealth Secretariat, the United States Center for Substance Abuse Prevention and the United States Department of State, Lusaka.

1995: Course on training of trainers, organized by HM Customs and Excise, Lusaka.

1999: Money-laundering investigation course, Lusaka, organized by the Department of International Development, in conjunction with the British Council and West Midlands Police, United Kingdom.

2003: Seminar on control of drug offences, organized by the Japan International Cooperation Agency under the international cooperation programme of the Government of Japan, Tokyo.

Other qualifications: Member of the Law Association of Zambia; author of various articles on drug trafficking and money-laundering, including analysis of international instruments.

Aaron Zulu (Zambia)

Education:

1999: Postgraduate Certificate in Criminal Justice and Police Management at the University of Leicester, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

1999: International Commanders' Police Training Course, Police Staff College, Bramshill, United Kingdom.

1994: International relations course for defence and security officers, at Kabwe, Zambia.

1993: Identification and analysis of drugs of abuse in body fluids, United Nations-sponsored, National Laboratories, University of Helsinki.

1990: Course on identification and analysis of drugs of abuse, United Nations-sponsored, United Nations Office at Vienna.

Present post: Senior Assistant Commissioner, Drug Enforcement Commission

Conferences/seminars attended:

2003: International Conference on Drug and Organized Crime, Lyon, France, organized by the General Secretariat of Interpol.

1997: Commission on Narcotic Drugs intergovernmental working group, Vienna.

1995: Session of the Commission on Narcotic Drugs, Vienna.

1993: Regional Methaqualone Conference, Nairobi.